THE LEATHERMAN: A HISTORY OF INNOVATION AND ADVENTURE SINCE 1929

Imagine the ensuing chaos if fishermen, contractors and mechanics worldwide had to rely on the Fairyduster to solve their problems. All those many tasks they use the Leatherman for would suddenly just seem so...frilly. Indeed, we're glad our company president, founder and inventor is blessed with the last name of Leatherman. It saves us the trouble of trying to create a name that symbolizes the rugged universality of the world's perfect multitool.
