

Before even beginning a discussion of these Seven Deadly Sins, also known as "capital sins," it may be useful to differentiate among the various opinions on the subject. Some people believe it is better to take a more positive approach to faith and avoid sin. Others believe all sin is equally repugnant to God so any classification of sins is wrong. Still others just forget the whole thing since they are saved and God loves them and really doesn't care about all this blah blah blah blah blah blah blah.....
